Author to sign basset book

ALICE KENNELLY ROBERTS

"What a beautiful book!" was all I could say as I opened the cover of a colorful hardback and saw the stocky figure of a basset hound wrapping itself around the cover from front to back.

"Lily, A Basset Hound's Tail of Love" is the story of a homeless dog searching for a friend and finding it in Cathy L. Rudert of Fort Thomas, Ky. who took her home to join Chloe, another basset hound.

The charm of this book will delight kids and adults alike. Copies may be obtained when Cathy L. Rudert has a book signing from noon to 2 p.m. Saturday at the Kentucky Haus, 411 East 10th St., Newport.

She is currently working on another children's picture book in which she brings basset hounds and fairies together. She is the founder of Basset Hound Town Publishing and owner of Bassethoundtown.com, where the streets are "pawed" with fun. She is a resident of Fort Thomas.

Our Town appears Tuesdays in The Post. Send social news to Alice Kennelly Roberts in care of The Post, 125 E. Court St., Cincinnati, Ohio 45202.

OUR TOWN

Basset hound love

Cathy Rudert of Fort Thomas, Ky., who has authored a children's book titled "Lily, a Basset Hound's Tail of Love," has progressed to note paper and book marks, all promoting her love of basset hounds. Her business cards and stationery all carry the basset hound logo. She had a book signing in April at the Kentucky Haus in Newport and is now working on a second children's book.

The Kentucky Haus is selling her book, which has been very well received by children and adults as well.
